“Search me, O God, and know my heart; Try me, and know my anxieties; And see if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.”

Psalms 139:23-24 NKJV

An open book lies on a dark, textured surface, possibly a cave floor. The book is illuminated from within, casting a warm, golden glow. Numerous small, bright, star-like lights are scattered around the book, some appearing to emanate from it. The background is a dark, textured wall, possibly a cave wall, with a vertical light streak or opening in the center. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and divine.
